Complaints and appeals procedure

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, Henley in Arden School encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of centre.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- A complaint should be submitted – in writing by completing a complaints and appeals form
- Forms are available from the Exams Officer where the complaint refers to Examinations
- Completed forms should be returned to the Exams Officer in the first instance.
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 5 calendar days]

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion
- The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 6 working weeks

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted – in writing by again completing a complaints and appeals form
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 5 calendar days
- The appeal will be referred to Chair of Governors (or a special Committee of the Governing body) for consideration
